

Food Technology Educators

Professional Development Day

Unit 4 – Sustainability in Primary Food Production

Topics covered:

Low impact & sustainable practices, biosecurity, technology, pest & disease management, GMO & production systems.

Join us on a unique tour visiting three privately owned family farming operations to gain valuable insight into modern day food production.

Hosts:

Julie Armstrong - Director
Education is Key

Kate Sharkey - Tour Facilitator
Boundary Fence Educational Farm Tours

Further information:

Julie PH 0439 315 448 or email
julie@educationiskey.com.au

Strictly limited numbers

When: Saturday May 1, 2021

Where: Bacchus Marsh & Surrounds

Travel: Bus from Bacchus Marsh Train Station
Station St, Bacchus Marsh
Depart 10.00am Return 2.30pm
(Please arrive no later than 9.45am)

Cost: $125 incl. GST

Go to: www.trybooking.com/BQDXA

Cost includes private tour, morning tea and lunch at St Annes Winery.

RSVP no later than Wed April 21, 2021

EDUCATION IS KEY

HIGH IMPACT EXAMINATION PREPARATION TO UNLOCK YOUR STUDENTS' POTENTIAL

